

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Eudes Barbosa. I obtained my degree in Digital Filmmaking at Boston University in 2013. I have since been working in the Motion Pictures Industry and running my own production company, Golden Wolf Films. My recent credits include Little Women and Chris Evans new series, Defending Jacob.

I have worked closely with both founders of Off Hand Co, Lena Vani and Mae Horak, in different capacities. Lena worked for me as an actress and a PA for Golden Wolf Films most recent short, Eve. Mae was the costume designer for Eve and we won a New York Cinematography Award for best costume design.

Lena's top priority is the integrity of a project. When we could not film everything I had hoped for on time, Lena volunteered an extra two full days of working for free to make sure the film would be the best it could be. Her dedication is unmatched.

Mae also directed me as her DP to Off Hand Co's trailer for The Taiga. Mae had a clear vision and orchestrated the crew and the actors with concise and passionate direction. She is brilliant as she is fun.

Both of these women are talented, strong-headed and innovative artists whom I greatly admire. I am sure they will use every dollar awarded to them to its fullest potential.

Sincerely,

Eudes Barbosa
